OFFICIAL BERLIN DISPATCH TELLS OF ATTEMPT OF REVOLUTIONARY LEADERS TO ESCAPE ARREST

SHOT HIS GUARD SAYS REPORT

(By United Press)

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Carl Leibknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, radical Socialists and leaders of the German Spartacans, have been killed according to an official Berlin dispatch today. The German government announced that several arrests have been made and that those who committed the murder will be severely punished.

Following the death of their leaders the Spartacan revolution was revived on a large scale in Berlin and is spreading throughout the country, late dispatches from Zurich stated. Five new divisions of loyal troops arrived in Berlin. The city gives the appearance of being occupied almost entirely by the military. The government is expected to take strenuous measures against the latest outrages.

Dispatches from Basel said that Leibknecht and Rosa Luxemburg were shot by a military escort which was taking them to where they had been arrested at Leibknecht's home. The automobile in which they were riding broke down and they made a dash for liberty. One report said that Leibknecht in his efforts to escape shot one of the guards.

BERLIN, Jan. 17.—Carl Leibknecht, the most dramatic figure in Germany, was shot to death while attempting to escape from a heavy escort of government troops, it was learned today. At the same time his lieutenant, Rosa Luxemburg, was lynched by a mob. The details of her death could not be definitely learned as this was written but it was known that she was beaten to death by an angry mob and her body thrown into the Landwehr canal.

(By United Press)

PALERMO, Jan. 17.—Five hundred passengers are missing today from the French steamer Xhaperoi struck by a mine in the Messina strait and which sunk in four minutes. The steam is a vessel of 4,600 tons. Six hundred fifty passengers were aboard. The British steamer Cagestan saved 150. The remainder are believed to have perished. The Xhaperoi sailed from Marseilles. Neither the Xhaperoi nor the Cagestan is listed in Lloyd's registry. It is possible the names were garbled in transmission.

CO. TREASURER KLINE EVIDENTLY TRIED STRUCK BY AUTO HARD TO GET LOCKED IS BADLY BRUISED UP. HE SUCCEEDED

County Treasurer A. L. Kline was struck by an automobile while crossing Market street from Snyder's corner to the Court House about 10:15 o'clock this morning and quite painfully hurt. Two severe gashes were cut in the back of his head while he was considerably bruised about the body.

The automobile, a Ford runabout, was being driven by C. J. Zerby, of the Singer Sewing Machine company. Zerby drove down Second street and made a turn into Market at pretty fair rate of speed. Mr. Kline stepped off the curb right in front of the car and the front wheel struck him and knocked him down. The force of the blow spun him around and his head struck the rear end of the moving car. He was rolled over against the curb from where he was picked up by eye-witnesses to the accident and carried into Lytle Bros. store.

He was rendered unconscious for the moment and on recovering asked what had hit him, which would indicate that he did not see the car rounding the corner when he stepped into the street.

The ambulance was summoned and Mr. Kline rushed at once to the Clearfield hospital where careful examination failed to discover any serious hurts, which will be good news to his host of friends.

Mr. Kline's injuries are quite painful and will confine him to his bed for several days.

Mr. Zerby stopped his machine as soon as possible and after helping to look after his victim followed the ambulance to the hospital. He was very much broken up over the accident.

A fellow named Gallagher who gave his hailing place as Danbury, Connecticut, succeeded in getting himself behind the bars at For. Gorman yesterday after two separate efforts, or alleged efforts.

Gallagher came to town the other day and going to a rooming house rented a furnished room for a year. The day following his entry, or Monday last, after dallying with the cup that cheers he departed from his quarters and an expensive traveling bag belonging to the landlady went with him.

On Tuesday he left for Tyrone and returned that evening laboring under a two-man jag. The rooming house proprietor notified the police and when the lodger was rounded up late in the evening he produced the traveling bag with its contents intact, and explained his acquisition on the ground that his ideas of the rights of property had become mixed with his drinks and no harm was intended.

Wednesday morning J. E. Miller who went to Tyrone on the Pennsylvania train with Gallagher and was with him for a time, that town reported to the police that he believed Gallagher had relieved him of his pocketbook containing a sum of money and a $50 Liberty bond. Gallagher was arrested by Constable Reilley and lodged in jail pending an investigation. He stoutly maintained his innocence and will attempt to show that he is not guilty of the theft of the pocketbook at a hearing before Justice Chorpene today.

CANDIDATES BEGIN TO BUILD FENCES FOR THE FALL PRIMARY

Despite the fact that the 1919 primary election will not be held until September 17th, already the fellow with "an itch for office," has begun to come to the front and from early indications the anxious candidate in Clearfield county will flourish as the green bay tree this year.

This will be a highly important election at that, as there will be a county treasurer, prothonotary, register, three county commissioners and three county auditors to nominate.

The most popular office so far appears to be that of county commissioner. Under a recent Act of Assembly, which bases the compensation of the commissioners upon the population of the respective counties, the salary of the commissioners of Clearfield county for the next term will amount to $2800 per year, which no doubt accounts for the extra large number of candidates.

So far as we have learned the following candidates have about decided to shy their hats into the ring for the respective offices named:

Prothonotary

George W. Baiston, R., Clearfield
Richard Burchill, R., Houtzdale
John E. Johnson, R., DuBois
M. F. Bratton, R., Clearfield

'A LITTLE SERVICE, PLEASE'

PEACE
TABLE

INTEREST GROWING IN GOOD ROADS MEETING TO BE HELD THIS EVENING

Everybody interested in good roads for Clearfield county should attend the meeting called for 8 o'clock this evening in the Arbitration Room of the Court House.

The purpose of the meeting is to form a preliminary or temporary organization preparatory to the calling of a county meeting.

It is hoped that every branch of business or activity will be represented in the coming organization, as good roads affect all class of our citizens. The farmers will be asked to join and cooperate as the purpose of this coming organization will be to have all the roads of the county properly looked after.

Other counties have found that a live organization such as will be outlined at tonight's meeting was a great aid in securing recognition and roads and we have suffered in this regard in the past because of our failure to be able to make an organized effort for State aid when such was needed and due us.

Don't fail to come out tonight.

SENATE BACKS UP WILSON FIGHT FOR OPEN SESSIONS OF PEACE CONFERENCE

(By United Press)

The Senate today assured President Wilson of its emphatic support in his fight against secrecy in the peace conference. Republicans and Democrats alike show an unmistakable contempt of any attempt to "bottle up" any peace news or keep the American people in ignorance of the steps taken toward lasting peace. Senators Borah and Johnson, California Republicans, and Lewis and Williams, Democrats, united here declaring that secret diplomacy now will defeat the end for which the war was fought. No European or set of Europeans should be allowed to interfere with President Wilson's promise of full publicity to the American people.

By ROBERT J. BENDER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Jan. 17.—On the eve of the formal opening of the peace congress it may be stated authoritatively today that President Wilson is feeling more optimistic regarding the general situation than at any time since his arrival in Europe. The President is known to be strongly appreciative of the support of both the American and foreign correspondents. All the press delegates to the country will attend the formal opening when President Wilson will make the welcome address and other leaders will reply.

(By United Press)

PARIS, Jan. 17.—Twenty-five countries will be represented at the formal opening of the peace congress tomorrow, it was officially announced today. In addition to the 21 states which participated in the war there will be Peru, Ecuador, and Bolivia, which have resumed diplomatic relations.

WEALTHY NEW YORKER BELIEVED TO BE KIDNAPPED POTTER COUNTY LAD

By United Press

Bradford, Jan. 17.—One of New York's well known business men who heard the story and said that Nesbitt recently inherited large interests and showed him evidence to support his great wealth from his supposed father is in reality Henry Schall who disappeared from his home in Potter county 40 years ago, if the death bed story of a man who claimed he kidnapped the Schall child is true.

Aged Don Schall of Denton Hill, father of the child declared today there seems to be no doubt whatever of the truth of the story. He is going to New York tomorrow to see the man believed to be his son.

John Nesbitt, of Sweden, Pa., confessed to the kidnapping on his death bed in the presence of Reuben Daniels, a carpenter. He also told the same story four years ago when he was believed to be dying. FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 17, 1919.

AN OUTLAW

From thousands of lips prayers of thanksgiving rose to Heaven last night.

Fathers of sons gave thanks that the veil of respectability was no longer drawn over liquor drinking by state law and that after January 16th of next year liquor and the drinking thereof will be shown in its true light to their sons; a despicable thing outside the pale of law, shunned by civilized peoples, weighed and roundly, condemned by science and found guilty of every conceivable dirty, degenerate crime—as our court records show.

Mothers gave thanks for a like reason and for the further reason that tens of thousands of homes had been made unbearable by the curse of the liquor drinking habit.

Now that John Barleycorn is just as good as dead and the day of his final interment fixed, interest centers in the decision which laid him away following his disastrous bout with Uncle Sam, the great dry champion of all the world.

While the prohibitory amendment to the constitution, under its provision, becomes effective one year from the date of its final ratification yesterday, additional legislation by Congress is necessary to make it operative and ground work for this already has been laid by the dry forces in Congress. This legislation will prescribe penalties for violations of the amendment and determine how and by what agencies the law shall be enforced.

It is generally believed that the country will become permanently "dry" on July 1st next, the date on which the special wartime prohibition recently enacted by Congress goes into effect. This law prevents the manufacture and sale of intoxicants for beverage purposes and remains in force until the demobilization of the nation's armies is completed.

Now that the long-prayed for amendment has arrived, it is here to stay. It can neither be recalled nor changed save by amendment requiring approval of two-thirds of both houses of Congress and ratification by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the States.

The amendment is sweepingly drastic in its provisions. It will prohibit "the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, for beverage purposes;" and it will give to Congress and the several States "concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation." Almost everything is clearly prohibited which has to do with intoxicating liquors "for beverage purposes," except that he who has such liquors when the amendment takes effect may use them himself, so far as he can do so without transportation, or may give them to others for use where they are then found, not to be carried from one place to another. Except for the words "for beverage purposes," there is no limitation. Intoxicating liquors, including beer and wine, may not be made, sold or carried "for beverage purposes."

The liquor men will make a desperate effort to at least retard the operation of the amendment and started their fight on Tuesday last, before sufficient States had ratified. They went into court at San Francisco and obtained an order temporarily restraining Governor William D. Stephens of California, from signing ratification of the Federal prohibition constitutional amendment. Similar action may be taken in certain other States. It was said at the office of the California Grape Growers' Association that such action is possible in twelve other States.

The States, according to the association, are: Arkansas, Colorado, Maine, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Oregon, Ohio, Utah, Washington, Missouri and Nebraska. In these States it was said all legal actions can be under the law referred to the people, and that in many of them the people have sixty days in which to take referendum.

The "dry" forces are ready for any point raised by the "wets."

and claim that the provision for amending the constitution of the United States empowers Congress to decide how a proposed amendment may be ratified and that State laws have nothing to do with such ratification.

The wets also contemplate action to have the amendment declared unconstitutional because it was passed by a two-thirds vote in Congress, not of the entire Congress but the working quorum present and doing business when the legislation submitting the amendment was finally passed. This contention was met in the Ohio case and the U. S. Supreme Court in a recent decision held that a two-thirds vote of those constituting a quorum was all that was required.

John Barleycorn is going! going! almost! gone!

HERE'S WHY

Two of our good friends have asked this morning why our story yesterday pointed out what we would lose through the prohibition amendment and said nothing about what we would gain. Here is why. The facilities and facilities of this newspaper are ample for almost all circumstances, but once in a while we run up against something too big for us. Had we a twenty-four-page paper and a force of at least twenty-five writers, we might then attempt to put into type a few of the things we gain through the passing of the federal amendment. Nuf Sed.

ARE YOU GETTING YOUR COPY OF THE PROGRESS REGULAR

Are you getting your paper? We are talking to Clearfielders, Curwensvillers, Grapianites and Woodlanders now. At all of these places we maintain carrier systems. Under our maintain carrier systems. Under our twenty three boys and a couple of good little girls. We say good little girls because we know they are good little girls and you cannot be sure about the boys although we venture to say there is not a real bad one among them. But we are getting away from the subject.

Are you getting your paper every evening? Every once in a while one of our good boys gets a little careless and lets another boy deliver his papers. The substitute does not know the route and as a result someone is missed. Sometimes a little streak of laziness will creep into his bones and he will throw a few papers away and go home early. Once in a while a sudden temptation will come to him and he will sell a paper. Our carrier boys are not allowed to sell any papers. All are sent out for the regular subscribers.

Many subscribers neglect to notify us when they do not receive their paper and in this way we make bad friends. The object of this little story is to ask every subscriber to be very, very particular to report to the office when they do not receive their paper. It is often a case of a new boy on a route. The new fellow, doing the best he can, will miss one or two on the route. Delivering a hundred or more papers along a strange street for the first time is no cinch. If you don't believe it, try it sometime. In this case, when we are not notified we take it for granted that all subscribers are getting their papers and the mistake is not found until we try to collect and then we get an awful calling down and are told that the subscriber has not been getting the paper for three weeks.

Call us on the phone or write to us when you do not receive your paper. It is the only way we have of knowing whether or not you are getting what you are paying for.

SHOE SHOP ROBBED

THE DOXOLOGY FOR PROHIBITION

BORAH ASSAULTS SECRET DIPLOMACY

By United Press
Washington, Jan. 17.—Secret diplomacy in any form was assailed today before the Senate by Senator Borah of Idaho. He declared the Senate should let the American people know that the great majority of the American people are dead against secret sessions at the peace conference or any bottling up of news at Versailles.

Mrs. M. V. Mape was called this morning to the bedside of her brother Robert Schffler, who is very seriously ill at his home in Bellefonte as the result of complications following influenza. He is a former Clearfield resident.

When, in 1429, Joan of Arc raised the siege of Orleans, the English did not think much of their failure to take the city. They held more than half France in their grip, and for fourteen years had carried all before them. Yet it turned out that their fatal chance of conquering France was lost at Orleans, though they were not finally driven from the land until 1452.

In Brazil there is no "middle-class." The people are either rich or poor.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

The influenza has again invaded the South Side and laid unrelenting hands on Mrs. Archie Bloom on Susquehanna avenue. It is hoped that the disease will be fully broken up before it strikes here in a more dangerous form.

According to a poster at the home of Ned Bloom, measles has broken out in his family, but only in a mild form. All preventatives will be used by the attending physicians to keep the troublesome disease from getting among the children.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Caldwell, whose untimely death occurred a few days ago, took place on Thursday from her late home. Her age was a little past 26 years. This household is certainly an afflicted one. Mrs. Caldwell, the mother of Charles, and Mr. Caldwell both very ill, and beyond the stage of helping others in the home, even the care of the four small children; therefore combining all things together, it certainly is a home of affliction.

Charles Temon, who resides at Bridgeport, died at his home on Thursday, after an illness lasting several weeks. His illness started with influenza and finally culminated in an acute attack of pneumonia, which was the final cause of his death. The mother of the Temon boys and the wife of Charles Temon are both very ill from the same cause and there is little hope of their recovery. Charles Temon the young man who died, is about 25 years of age. His remains will be interred in Oak Hill cemetery along side of the brother, whose interment occurred a few days ago. Charles was married and leaves a wife and several small children and an aged mother to mourn his death.

Those who were ill in the family of John A. Dale, with pneumonia and influenza were reported today as gradually getting better and hope entertained for their full recovery within the next few days. Miss Eva Dale, one of the teachers in South Side school building and who is loved and respected by every one of her half hundred pupils, expects to resume her school duties not later than the middle of next week.

Mrs. Samuel McKenrick residing over on the South Side, who was so unfortunate as to fall down a flight of stairs a week ago and severely sprain one of her limbs, has so far recovered as to be able to resume her household duties once again.

Messrs. Manuel and Paul Harley, who contacted the painting of the three new brick buildings erected by Otis Norris on the Arnold estate ground fronting state and Thompson streets, has completed the one now occupied by Mr. Norris and family. It will take about three months yet to complete the finishing of the balance of their contract and when done will be a job that no mechanic in the painting and frescoing line need be ashamed to ask the public generally to examine.

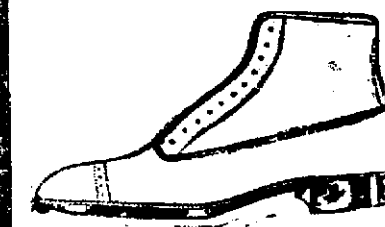

The uptown readers of The Progress were considerably put out Wednesday evening by not receiving the paper, it not having been delivered to patrons that evening or the next day for some unexplained cause. This has occurred several times within the past two weeks. The paper arrived here in plenty of time for an early delivery but the "carriers" failed to "hand the goods." The two other routes were delivered on time, but the up-town people waited until a late hour for their paper in vain.

Some mechanical trouble occurring in two or three of the local mines the latter part of last week and the fore part of this week, resulted in a considerable shortage of their usual output, hence those mines which furnish domestic coal, had considerable difficulty in filling orders to their regular customers and many had to apply to outside dealers for fuel enough to tide them over the cold snap. By the end of the week all repairs will have been made in local mines and the supply to local consumers will go on the same as ever.

Samuel McKenrick, who was attacked by the grip last week, has so far recovered his health as to be able to get around again, although unable to do any shop work. He expects to resume his labors in his wagon-making and repair shop by the first of next week.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.
Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.
No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—a bad breath—a dull tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.
Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them.

CHILDRENS AID SOCIETY THANKS ITS CONTRIBUTORS

The members of the Children's Aid Society desire to thank all those who have in any way assisted us in our work during the past year. The interest displayed has been very gratifying.

We particularly wish at this time to express our appreciation of the generous donations received at Christmas enabling us to give the 25 children at the Home much pleasure and happiness.

Through the generosity and efforts of different members and friends of the society, each child received a huge stocking filled with comfortable warm clothing, toys, and candy besides numerous gifts from others in the community interested in the children.

To watch them enjoy these things
and to see them gathered around the table loaded with the regulation
Christmas dinner, made one feel that the effort and thought expended was surely worth while.

The gift of a knit afghan, made by the smaller girls of town, was very much appreciated and will be very much used.

Our work during the coming year,
after we move into our new home,
will of course be on a larger scale,
and we will gladly welcome into the society as members, any who feel an interest in its work.

hundred and eight pounds. Besides being a first class soldier he is noted
as an expert horse trainer.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally
now instead of loading their system
with drugs. "What's an inside bath?"
you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot weather enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste.
sour bile and indigestible material
left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest
the bowels, the quick result is poisons
and toxins, which are then absorbed
into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste,
colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to take a quarter round of limestone phosphate at the drug store.
It is vastly more important to bathe
on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

CARL LEIBKNECHT AND ROSA LUXEMBURG KILLED
CAUSES REVOLUTION TO BREAK OUT IN BERLIN

SHOT HIS GUARD SAYS REPORT

(By United Press)

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Carl Leibknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, radical Socialists and leaders of the German Spartacans, have been killed according to an official Berlin dispatch today. The German government announced that several arrests have been made and that those who committed the murder will be severely punished.

Following the death of their leaders the Spartacan revolution was revived on a large scale in Berlin and is spreading throughout the country, late dispatches from Zurich stated. Five new divisions of loyal troops arrived in Berlin. The city gives the appearance of being occupied almost entirely by the military. The government is expected to take strenuous measures against the latest outrages.

Dispatches from Basel said that Leibknecht and Rosa Luxemburg were shot by a military escort which was taking them to where they had been arrested at Leibknecht's home. The automobile in which they were riding broke down and they made a dash for liberty. One report said that Leibknecht in his efforts to escape was shot one of the guards.

By FRANK TAYLOR

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Jan. 17.—Carl Leibknecht, the most dramatic figure in Germany, was shot to death while attempting to escape from a heavy escort of government troops, it was learned today. At the same time his lieutenant, Rosa Luxemburg, was lynched by a mob. The details of her death could not be definitely learned as this was written but it was known that she was beaten to death by an angry mob and her body thrown into the Landwehr canal.

FOCH EXTENDS ARMISTICE ONE MONTH
MANY NEW CLAUSES ADDED TO PACT

(By United Press)

PARIS, Jan. 17.—The armistice with several important clauses added has been extended for a month, it was officially announced today. "Following the conference at Treves between Marshal Foch and German delegates the armistice was prolonged a month," the statement said.

Clauses on agricultural material, rationing war prisoners, naval conditions and recuperation of material taken from the invaded district were added.

FRENCH STEAMER STRIKES MINE IN MESSINA STRAIT: 500 ARE MISSING

(By United Press)

PALERMO, Jan. 17.—Five hundred passengers are missing today from the French steamer Xhaperoi struck by a mine in the Messina strait and which sunk in four minutes. The steam is a vessel of 4,600 tons. Six hundred fifty passengers were aboard. The British steamer Cagistan saved 150. The remainder are believed to have perished. The Xhaperoi sailed from Marseilles. Neither the Xhaperoi nor the Cagistan is listed in Lloyd's registry. It is possible the names were garbled in transmission.

CO. TREASURER KLINE EVIDENTLY TRIED
STRUCK BY AUTO HARD TO GET LOCKED IS BADLY BRUISED UP. HE SUCCEEDED

County Treasurer A. L. Kline was struck by an automobile while crossing Market street from Snyder's corner to the Court House about 10:15 o'clock this morning and quite painfully hurt. Two severe gashes were cut in the back of his head while he was considerably bruised about the body.

The automobile, a Ford runabout, was being driven by C. J. Zerby, of the Singer Sewing Machine company. Zerby drove down Second street and made a turn into Market at pretty fair rate of speed. Mr. Kline stepped off the curb right in front of the car and the front wheel struck him and knocked him down. The force of the blow spun him around and his head struck the rear end of the moving car. He was rolled over against the curb from where he was picked up by eye-witnesses to the accident and carried into Lytle Bros. store.

He was rendered unconscious for the moment and on recovering asked what had hit him, which would indicate that he did not see the car rounding the corner when he stepped into the street.

The ambulance was summoned and Mr. Kline rushed at once to the Clearfield hospital where careful examination failed to discover any serious hurts, which will be good news to his host of friends.

Mr. Kline's injuries are quite painful and will confine him to his bed for several days.

Mr. Zerby stopped his machine as soon as possible and after helping to look after his victim followed the ambulance to the hospital. He was very much broken up over the accident.

A fellow named Gallagher who gave his hailing place as Danbury, Connecticut, succeeded in getting himself behind the bars at For. Gorman yesterday after two separate efforts, or alleged efforts.

Gallagher came to town the other day and going to a rooming house rented a furnished room for a year. The day following his entry, or Monday last, after dallying with the cup that cheers he departed from his quarters and an expensive traveling bag belonging to the landlady went with him.

On Tuesday he left for Tyrone and returned that evening laboring under a two-man jag. The rooming house proprietor notified the police and when the lodger was rounded up late in the evening he produced the traveling bag with its contents intact, and explained his acquisition on the ground that his ideas of the rights of property had become mixed with his drinks and no harm was intended.

Wednesday morning J. E. Miller who went to Tyrone on the Pennsylvania train with Gallagher and was with him for a time, that town reported to the police that he believed Gallagher had relieved him of his pocketbook containing a sum of money and a $50 Liberty bond. Gallagher was arrested by Constable Reilley and lodged in jail pending an investigation. He stoutly maintained his innocence and will attempt to show that he is not guilty of the theft of the pocketbook at a hearing before Justice Chorpene today.

CANDIDATES BEGIN TO BUILD FENCES FOR THE FALL PRIMARY

Despite the fact that the 1919 primary election will not be held until September 17th, already the fellow with "an itch for office," has begun to come to the front and from early indications the anxious candidate in Clearfield county will flourish as the green bay tree this year.

This will be a highly important election at that, as there will be a county treasurer, prothonotary, register, three county commissioners and three county auditors to nominate.

The most popular office so far appears to be that of county commissioner. Under a recent Act of Assembly, which bases the compensation of the commissioners upon the population of the respective counties, the salary of the commissioners of Clearfield county for the next term will amount to $2800 per year, which no doubt accounts for the extra large number of candidates.

So far as we have learned the following candidates have about decided to shy their hats into the ring for the respective offices named:

Prothonotary

George W. Baiston, R., Clearfield
Richard Burchill, R., Houtzdale
John E. Johnson, R., DuBois
M. F. Bratton, R., Clearfield
John A. Dale, D., Curwensville
Register and Recorder
Ed. B. Chase, R., Clearfield
Tone Evans, R., DuBois
John Scollins, D., Houtzdale

County Treasurer

M. M. Overly, R., Clearfield
Amos Rumberger, R., Houtzdale
W. M. Brown, R., DuBois
George J. Dale, D., Graham Twp.

County Commissioners

J. E. Dale, R., DuBois
H. E. Spencer, D., DuBois
T. R. Weimer, R., DuBois
H. L. Jones, R., Clearfield
Mr. J. Graham, R., Clearfield
Joseph Pickering, R., Clearfield
Austin Haney, D., Clearfield
D. D. Guppy, D., Clearfield

'A LITTLE SERVICE, PLEASE'

PEACE
TABLEINTEREST GROWING IN GOOD ROADS
MEETING TO BE HELD THIS EVENING

Everybody interested in good roads for Clearfield county should attend the meeting called for 8 o'clock this evening in the Arbitration Room of the Court House.

The purpose of the meeting is to form a preliminary or temporary organization preparatory to the calling of a county meeting.

It is hoped that every branch of business or activity will be represented in the coming organization, as good roads affect all class of our citizens. The farmers will be asked to join and cooperate as the purpose of this coming organization will be to have all the roads of the county properly looked after.

Other counties have found that a live organization such as will be outlined at tonight's meeting was a great aid in securing recognition and roads and we have suffered in this regard in the past because of our failure to be able to make an organized effort for State aid when such was needed and due us.

Don't fail to come out tonight.

SENATE BACKS UP WILSON FIGHT FOR OPEN SESSIONS OF PEACE CONFERENCE

(By United Press)

The Senate today assured President Wilson of its emphatic support in his fight against secrecy in the peace conference. Republicans and Democrats alike show an unmistakable contempt of any attempt to "bottle up" any peace news or keep the American people in ignorance of the steps taken toward lasting peace. Senators Borah and Johnson, California Republicans, and Lewis and Williams, Democrats, united here declaring that secret diplomacy now will defeat the end for which the war was fought. No European or set of Europeans should be allowed to interfere with President Wilson's promise of full publicity to the American people.

By ROBERT J. BENDER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Jan. 17.—On the eve of the formal opening of the full peace congress it may be stated authoritatively today that President Wilson is feeling more optimistic regarding the general situation than at any time since his arrival in Europe. The President is known to be strongly appreciative of the support of both the American and foreign correspondents. All the press delegates to the country will attend the formal opening when President Wilson will make the welcome address and other leaders will reply.

(By United Press)

PARIS, Jan. 17.—Twenty-five countries will be represented at the formal opening of the peace congress tomorrow, it was officially announced today. In addition to the 21 states which participated in the war there will be Peru, Ecuador, and Bolivia, which have resumed diplomatic relations.

ALL ZONE REGULATIONS ON SOFT COAL

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Zone regulations on coke and coal except Pennsylvania anthracite will be suspended February 1, the fuel administration announced today. Likewise all price regulations including agent's commission and wholesale and retail margins on coke and coal except Pennsylvania anthracite will be suspended.

WEALTHY NEW YORKER BELIEVED TO BE KIDNAPPED POTTER COUNTY LAD

By United Press

Bradford, Jan. 17.—One of New York's well known business men who recently inherited large interests and showed him evidence to support his great wealth from his supposed father is in reality Henry Schall who disappeared from his home in Potter county 40 years ago, if the death bed story of a man who claimed he kidnapped the Schall child is true.

Aged Don Schall of Denton Hill, father of the child declared today there seems to be no doubt whatever of the truth of the story. He is going to New York tomorrow to see the man believed to be his son.

John Nesbitt, of Sweden, Pa., confessed to the kidnapping on his death bed in the presence of Reuben Daniels, a carpenter. He also told the same story four years ago when he was believed to be dying. Daniels heard the story and said that Nesbitt recently inherited large interests and showed him evidence to support his great wealth from his supposed father.

Neither Schall or Daniels will give the name of the New York business man that Nesbitt declared paid him $500 to kidnap the child but Schall declared the man was a member of a hunting party in Potter county in June 1878. He was greatly attracted by little Henry and offered Nesbitt $500 to kidnap the child for him; Nesbitt at first refused but finally accepted the $500 which he needed to pay off a note held by William Perkins, when the New Yorker agreed to return the child to its parents within a year.

FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 17, 1919.

AN OUTLAW

From thousands of lips prayers of thanksgiving rose to Heaven last night.

Fathers of sons gave thanks that the veil of respectability was no longer drawn over liquor drinking by state law and that after January 16th of next year liquor and the drinking thereof will be shown in its true light to their sons; a despicable thing outside the pale of law, shunned by civilized peoples, weighed and roundly, condemned by science and found guilty of every conceivable dirty, degenerate crime—as our court records show.

Mothers gave thanks for a like reason and for the further reason that tens of thousands of homes had been made unbearable by the curse of the liquor drinking habit.

Now that John Barleycorn is just as good as dead and the day of his final interment fixed, interest centers in the decision which laid him away following his disastrous bout with Uncle Sam, the great dry champion of all the world.

While the prohibitory amendment to the constitution, under its provision, becomes effective one year from the date of its final ratification yesterday, additional legislation by Congress is necessary to make it operative and ground work for this already has been laid by the dry forces in Congress. This legislation will prescribe penalties for violations of the amendment and determine how and by what agencies the law shall be enforced.

It is generally believed that the country will become permanently "dry" on July 1st next, the date on which the special wartime prohibition recently enacted by Congress goes into effect. This law prevents the manufacture and sale of intoxicants for beverage purposes and remains in force until the demobilization of the nation's armies is completed.

Now that the long-prayed for amendment has arrived, it is here to stay. It can neither be recalled nor changed save by amendment requiring approval of two-thirds of both houses of Congress and ratification by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the States.

The amendment is sweepingly drastic in its provisions. It will prohibit "the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, for beverage purposes;" and it will give to Congress and the several States "concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation." Almost everything is clearly prohibited which has to do with intoxicating liquors "for beverage purposes," except that he who has such liquors when the amendment takes effect may use them himself, so far as he can do so without transportation, or may give them to others for use where they are then found, not to be carried from one place to another. Except for the words "for beverage purposes," there is no limitation. Intoxicating liquors, including beer and wine, may not be made, sold or carried "for beverage purposes."

The liquor men will make a desperate effort to at least retard the operation of the amendment and started their fight on Tuesday last, before sufficient States had ratified. They went into court at San Francisco and obtained an order temporarily restraining Governor William D. Stephens of California, from signing ratification of the Federal prohibition constitutional amendment. Similar action may be taken in certain other States. It was said at the office of the California Grape Growers' Association that such action is possible in twelve other States.

The States, according to the association, are: Arkansas, Colorado, Maine, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Oregon, Ohio, Utah, Washington, Missouri and Nebraska. In these States it was said all legal actions can be under the law referred to the people, and that in many of them the people have sixty days in which to take referendum.

and claim that the provision for amending the constitution of the United States empowers Congress to decide how a proposed amendment may be ratified and that State laws have nothing to do with such ratification.

The wets also contemplate action to have the amendment declared unconstitutional because it was passed by a two-thirds vote in Congress, not of the entire Congress but the working quorum present and doing business when the legislation submitting the amendment was finally passed. This contention was met in the Ohio case and the U. S. Supreme Court in a recent decision held that a two-thirds vote of those constituting a quorum was all that was required.

John Barleycorn is going! going! almost! gone!

HERE'S WHY

Two of our good friends have asked this morning why our story yesterday pointed out what we would lose through the prohibition amendment and said nothing about what we would gain. Here is why. The abilities and facilities of this newspaper are ample for almost all circumstances, but once in a while we run up against something too big for us. Had we a twenty-four-page paper and a force of at least twenty-five writers, we might then attempt to put into type a few of the things we gain through the passing of the federal amendment. Nuf Sed.

Are you getting your paper? We are talking to Clearfielders, Curwensvillers, Grapianites and Woodlanders now. At all of these places we maintain carrier systems. Under our maintain carrier systems. Under our twenty three boys and a couple of good little girls. We say good little girls because we know they are good little girls and you cannot be sure about the boys although we venture to say there is not a real bad one among them. But we are getting away from the subject.

Are you getting your paper every evening? Every once in a while one of our good boys gets a little careless and lets another boy deliver his papers. The substitute does not know the route and as a result someone is missed. Sometimes a little streak of laziness will creep into his bones and he will throw a few papers away and go home early. Once in a while a sudden temptation will come to him and he will sell a paper. Our carrier boys are not allowed to sell any papers. All are sent out for the regular subscribers.

Many subscribers neglect to notify us when they do not receive their paper and in this way we make bad friends. The object of this little story is to ask every subscriber to be very, very particular to report to the office when they do not receive their paper. It is often a case of a new boy on a route. The new fellow, doing the best he can, will miss one or two on the route. Delivering a hundred or more papers along a strange street for the first time is no cinch. If you don't believe it, try it sometime. In this case, when we are not notified we take it for granted that all subscribers are getting their papers and the mistake is not found until we try to collect and then we get an awful calling down and are finally told that the subscriber has not been getting the paper for three weeks.

Call us on the phone or write to us when you do not receive your paper. It is the only way we have of knowing whether or not you are getting what you are paying for.

SHOE SHOP ROBBED

The shoe shop of Nick Ontano located on Third street, next door to the City Bakery, was broken into by burglars last night. The intruders smashed the cash register to smithereens after securing a small sum of money. They also stole a quantity of rubber heels and neolin shoe soles.

THE DOXOLOGY FOR PROHIBITION

At the close of the revival meeting in Trinity church last night, the congregation gave expression to its joy over the prohibition victory by singing the national hymn and then doxology "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow." Several persons present had done splendid work in the cause of temperance for years.

Tonight is school night. High school and Junior high school scholars are expected to be present. The sermon will be on the subject "The Young Man Whom Jesus Loved."

"THE GOOD CHEER TRIO"

Galbraith Brothers, the "Superior Entertainers" of Brookville, Pa., assisted by Private Bill Statzell a hero of the late war, will give an entertainment at the High School auditorium on the night of January 31st, under the auspices and for the benefit of the Clearfield Fire department. The aggregation is styled "The Good Cheer Trio" and is said to be the "greatest combination of the day." More extended announcement later.

BORAH ASSAULTS SECRET DIPLOMACY

By United Press
Washington, Jan. 17.—Secret diplomacy in any form was assailed today before the Senate by Senator Borah of Idaho. He declared the Senate should let the American people know that the great majority of the American people are dead against secret sessions at the peace conference or any bottling up of news at Versailles.

Mrs. M. V. Mape was called this morning to the bedside of her brother Robert Schffler, who is very seriously ill at his home in Bellefonte as the result of complications following influenza. He is a former Clearfield resident.

When, in 1429, Joan of Arc raised the siege of Orleans, the English did not think much of their failure to take the city. They held more than half France in their grip, and for fourteen years had carried all before them. Yet it turned out that their fatal chance of conquering France was lost at Orleans, though they were not finally driven from the land until 1452.

In Brazil there is no "middle-class." The people are either rich or poor.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

The influenza has again invaded the South Side and laid unrelenting hands on Mrs. Archie Bloom on Susquehanna avenue. It is hoped that the disease will be fully broken up before it strikes here in a more dangerous form.

According to a poster at the home of Ned Bloom, measles has broken out in his family, but only in a mild form. All preventatives will be used by the attending physicians to keep the troublesome disease from getting among the children.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Caldwell, whose untimely death occurred a few days ago, took place on Thursday from her late home. Her age was a little past 26 years. This household is certainly an afflicted one. Mrs. Caldwell, the mother of Charles, and Mr. Caldwell both very ill, and beyond the stage of helping others in the home, even the care of the four small children; therefore combining all things together, it certainly is a home of affliction.

Charles Temon, who resides at Bridgeport, died at his home on Thursday, after an illness lasting several weeks. His illness started with influenza and finally culminated in an acute attack of pneumonia, which was the final cause of his death. The mother of the Temon boys and the wife of Charles Temon are both very ill from the same cause and there is little hope of their recovery. Charles Temon the young man who died, is about 25 years of age. His remains will be interred in Oak Hill cemetery along side of the brother, whose interment occurred a few days ago. Charles was married and leaves a wife and several small children and an aged mother to mourn his death.

Those who were ill in the family of John A. Dale, with pneumonia and influenza were reported today as gradually getting better and hope entertained for their full recovery within the next few days. Miss Eva Dale, one of the teachers in South Side school building and who is loved and respected by every one of her half hundred pupils, expects to resume her school duties not later than the middle of next week.

Mrs. Samuel McKenrick residing over on the South Side, who was so unfortunate as to fall down a flight of stairs a week ago and severely sprain one of her limbs, has so far recovered as to be able to resume her household duties once again.

Messrs Manuel and Paul Harley, who contacted the painting of the three new brick buildings erected by Otis Norris on the Arnold estate ground fronting state and Thompson streets, has completed the one now occupied by Mr. Norris and family. It will take about three months yet to complete the finishing of the balance of their contract and when done will be a job that no mechanic in the painting and frescoing line need be ashamed to ask the public generally to examine.

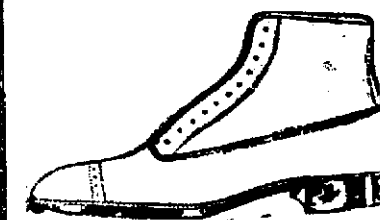

The uptown readers of The Progress were considerably put out Wednesday evening by not receiving the paper, it not having been delivered to patrons that evening or the next day for some unexplained cause. This has occurred several times within the past two weeks. The paper arrived here in plenty of time for an early delivery but the "carriers" failed to "hand the goods." The two other routes were delivered on time, but the up-town people waited until a late hour for their paper in vain.

Some mechanical trouble occurring in two or three of the local mines the latter part of last week and the fore part of this week, resulted in a considerable shortage of their usual output, hence those mines which furnish domestic coal, had considerable difficulty in filling orders to their regular customers and many had to apply to outside dealers for fuel enough to tide them over the cold snap. By the end of the week all repairs will have been made in local mines and the supply to local consumers will go on the same as ever.

Samuel McKenrick, who was attacked by the grip last week, has so far recovered his health as to be able to get around again, although unable to do any shop work. He expects to resume his labors in his wagon-making and repair shop by the first of next week.

FRESHMEN NOT SO FRESH NOW

A battle for blood was staged at the High school gym last night when the Eighth grade Tigers veritably eat alive the basketball warriors representing the Freshmen class. The Eighth Graders played rings around the upper class fellows, the final score being 21 to 9. It is said that the Eighth Grade team will be substituted for the Freshies when the latter's turn for the Varsity five arrives.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands
since Dr. Edwards produced Olive
Tablets, the substitute for calomel.
Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician
for 17 years and calomel's old-time
enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing
vegetable laxative.
No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—a bad breath—a dull tired feeling—sick
headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only
pleasant results from one or two little
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.
Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them.

CHILDRENS AID SOCIETY THANKS ITS CONTRIBUTORS

The members of the Children's Aid Society desire to thank all those who have in any way assisted us in our work during the past year. The interest displayed has been very gratifying.

We particularly wish at this time to express our appreciation of the generous donations received at Christmas enabling us to give the 25 children at the Home much pleasure and happiness.

Through the generosity and efforts
of different members and friends of the society, each child received a huge
stocking filled with comfortable warm
clothing, toys, and candy besides numerous gifts from others in the community interested in the children.

To watch them enjoy these things
and to see them gathered around the table loaded with the regulation
Christmas dinner, made one feel that
the effort and thought expended was surely worth while.

The gift of a knit afghan, made by the smaller girls of town, was very much appreciated and will be very much used.

Our work during the coming year,
after we move into our new home,
will of course be on a larger scale,
and we will gladly welcome into the
society as members, any who feel an interest in its work.

RETURNED TO CAMP LEE

Private Leo A. Duckett returned to Camp Lee after spending a ten day furlough with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Duckett of Hillsdale.
Leo is a fine specimen of manhood, standing six feet and weighing two hundred and eight pounds. Besides being a first class soldier he is noted
as an expert horse trainer.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right
with the system full
of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally
now instead of loading their system
with drugs. "What's an inside bath?"
you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe
these hot weather enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning drink a glass of
real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intes-
tines of the previous day's waste.
sour bile and indigestible material
left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for
the millions of bacteria which infest
the bowels, the quick result is poisons
and toxins, which are then absorbed
into the blood causing headache, bil-
ious attacks, foul breath, bad taste,
colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and
badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter round of limestone phosphate at the drug store.
It is vastly more important to bathe
on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.
